

Gabrielle Claiborne

Gabrielle Claiborne is a highly respected transgender business owner with an empowering story. In 2019, she received the Atlanta Business Chronicle's Outstanding Voice for Diversity & Inclusion Award. The Out Georgia Business Alliance chose her transgender-focused inclusion training firm as their 2018 Small Business of the Year. That same year, Gabrielle's work was recognized in Forbes, and the U.S. Small Business Administration honored her as their Georgia LGBT Small Business Champion of the Year. In 2015, she was voted Atlanta's Best Trans Activist. Gabrielle also shares her inspiring energy to better the world. Having served 5 years on the Board of Atlanta Pride, she now serves on the City of Atlanta's Mayoral LGBT Advisory Board, on the Board of the Out Georgia Business Alliance, and on the National LGBT Chamber of Commerce's Trans Inclusion Task Force.
